

Global Health Transforming--in Arizona and around the World

Oct 13-15, 2017

A Continuing Education Conference and
Reunion of the Arizona GH Course: Clinical & Community Care
Viscount Suites Hotel, Tucson, Arizona

AGENDA

Friday, October 13,

1 pm -3 pm Check in and social time to reacquaint with your—and new--cohorts

3pm –Session (1 hour) Open Panel discussion by alumni decades:
80's / 90's /2000's: How has global health changed for you?

4 pm- 6 pm – Happy Hour at Viscount [cash] Bar

Student Global Health Forum Poster session. Organized by Stephen Crabbe MPH, Class of 2020, current co-chair of Global Health Forum

Saturday, October 14, 8:00 -9 am – Check-In

9 am – Session (1 hour) Craig Spencer MD, MPH [2006 Course Alum]

The Challenges and Controversies of the Ebola Epidemic: Experiences of a Doctor turned Ebola patient

10:00 Break

10:15 am – Panel (1 hour) Tom Kenyon, MD, MPH, [1983 course alumni], moderator

What to do now about TB, the world's biggest killer infection

11:15 am – Session (1 hour) Rajni Gunnala MD, MPH [UA CoM 2009]

What diseases can we eradicate?

12:15-1:30 – Lunch – Deli Buffet

1:30 pm – Session (1 hour): Gene Bukhman, MD, PhD [UA CoM 2001];

Tracy Carroll PT, MPH [1995 Course Alum]

The new Non-Communicable Disease “epidemic”: Will “global health” methods work?

2:30 pm Session (1 hour): Robert Riviello, MD, MPH [1999 Course Alum]

Surgery and trauma in the “new global health”—at last!

3:30 Break

4:00 –5:00 pm Session (1 hour): Tom Kenyon, MD, MPH [1983 Course Alum]

How best can the “new global health” world collaborate fighting this new diversity of challenges?

630 pm – Dinner Banquet at Viscount (family invited – cost $35 per adult, half price from children under 12, free for children under 5))

7:30 pm – Ron Pust, MD – Course Co-Director 1982-2017

Clinical and Community Care – Does duration make a difference?

Sunday, Oct 15, 9:00 Continental breakfast and social time

9:30 Session (1 hour) - Panel

How will I contribute to the new global health?